Back Room

1. Susan Dorothea White
Paul the Environmentalist Levitating in the Rainforest, 1993 - 2000 acrylic on panel 256 x 136 cm NFS

"In a resilient state, Paul was able to maintain this pose while I painted him in a couple of hours. The background took much longer - completed at a later date! The mini-rainforest at Callan Park has always been a special place for Paul. It is an essential healing environment for the 'consumers' in Rozelle Hospital Open Wards and for the whole community".

2. Susan Dorothea White Woman Oppressed gosford sandstone 30 x 43 cm NFS

"At her lowest ebb, she is about to spring up against the forces of oppression. Torso-less and with oversized feet, she is a protest against the demeaning convention of depicting women with tiny feet and as headless torsos".

3. Janis Stewart date January 22nd 2008

4. Susan Dorothea White Ward 4 lithograph 75 x 101 cm NFS

The Intensive Psychiatric Care Unit was in the Kirkbride Building in 1986; now Sydney College of the Arts.

5. Paul Freeman Under Water Alchemy, 1993 acrylic on composition board 203.6 x 75 cm NFS

"Sydney University took over the Kirkbride Building in Callan Park from the mental health department, turning a draconian system into a creative arts institution. This is to be commended but it is enough. The service provided by the current hospital is a value to the consumers and should be maintained, perhaps with the addition of a nursery on the grounds and a performance centre that gives regular shows for the public". - Paul Freeman

6. Paul Freeman Cabinet 1, 1979-2008 Bronze, copper, silver, bone, glass, clay, wood, paint, wire, seeds, feathers, cuttlefish.

7. Paul Freeman Cabinet 2, 1984-2008 Wood, sandstone, wire, copper, clay, ceramic, glass, linoleum, carborun, dumbone, paint, aluminium foil.

8. Susan Dorothea White F S's Head Must Roll, 2008* acrylic on volleyball, drinking glass NFS
